To find your third clue, you'll need to join company with some notable names. Despite the crowd, this area of the library is often quiet, allowing for the opportunity to hear each person's story.

At the Coshocton Public Library, there's always "A Time to Read" fiction. Deep in the shelves, you'll find the fourth clue surrounded by Coshocton block.

Endowers, sponsors, donors, and participants all contribute to the success of the Coshocton Public Library.

To find your fifth clue, locate these special people.

The sixth clue rests in a small area of the library full of large things! You can't miss this clue, it's highly visible!

There's always positive energy in the Coshocton Public Library and the seventh clue is visible near a collection of old energy sources.

Hang your hat, hang your coat -- the Coshocton Public Library is a great place to hang out! You'll find the eighth clue if you "hang" around long enough.

For the location of your final clue, solve this riddle:

You're almost at the tail end of this activity but before you go, find this display of tales. Be sure to turn in your completed activity here.
